74, Gaistord Street,
London. N. W.

Sunday afternoon
June 17. 1877

My Dear Friend —

The enclosed card is wrongly addressed — and I grieve to say it only reached me at 10 o'clock last night — and I could not therefore have the pleasure to meet you, or to see you, yesterday — My day I am prevented by friends who are here by appointment — I may have to run to Hamburgh for a day or two to help in the County Election — as there is a contest there for a single seat — If it is not certain but I shall know in the morning — I fully expect to be at your Hotel by 1/2 past 10 to morrow (Monday morning) Do not remain in & go home on engagement — I shall know I hope tomorrow how to arrange for a good drive with you & the rest suitable time for you to come here — something you wishes and remember in all things — I saw Mr Bright this morning — and told him you were here — I came up from Cardiff by the first Western last Wednesday — I am greatly annoyed by this mishap — I see they and Gown and to the Baptist Village, Regents Park — Dines in Regents Park at 11 o'Clock Saturday morning — I could have met you with the greatest ease — We send warm love to you both

I hope you have enjoyed the fresh lovely landscape — & the beautiful weather I hope I shall be with you in the morning Always Dearest my dearest Mrs Mary Lloyd Gurney Esq Henry Vincent